Monday	Cardiology and Emergency Challenges G. Wess and R. Doerfelt	A patient is presented with dyspnea or coughing. Is it cardio – or respiratory? How do I do a work-up? Which tests are useful – and which one is not? Which steps are necessary to stabilize an emergency patient? Cardiology and Emergency made easy - case presentations and how to solve cases in private practice. In the afternoon we use the new information from the Hot Topic session to solve cardiac and emergency cases and to treat those cases accordingly.
